GENERAL

Traditional Arts and Culture Scotland | Constitution | SCIO 043009
Type of organisation

1 The organisation is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO).

Scottish principal office

2 The principal office of the organisation is in Scotland, based at the Scottish Storytelling Centre, 43-45 High Street, Edinburgh, EH1 1SR

Name

3 The name of the organisation is “Traditional Arts and Culture Scotland/Ealain is Cultar Traidiseanta Alba”.

Purposes

4 The organisation’s purposes are:

4.1 To increase knowledge and understanding of Scotland’s culture*, traditions, languages and living heritage.

4.2 To advance the practice of the arts in Scotland by
   a) perpetuating, propagating and developing creative skills grounded in Scotland’s cultural traditions of music, storytelling, dance and song, and their shared development.
   b) widening access to these creative practices and skills across all sectors of Scottish society and all age groups.

4.3 To advance cultural heritage in Scotland by
   a) enabling individuals and communities to source, interpret and express their intangible heritage as a resource for the arts, lifelong learning, and community life and wellbeing.
   b) fostering cultural exchange and understanding between diverse communities of place, culture, faith and language, and between such minority communities and Scottish society.

4.4 To increase international understanding of Scotland’s living cultural traditions and artistic heritage.

*Culture is understood to include artistic expression, heritage education, beliefs, language, customs and ways of life as defined in the UNESCO Universal Declaration on Cultural Diversity (2001).
Powers

5 The organisation has power to do anything which is calculated to further its purposes or is conducive or incidental to doing so.

6 No part of the income or property of the organisation may be paid or transferred (directly or indirectly) to the members - either during the organisation’s existence or on dissolution - except where this is done in direct furtherance of the organisation’s charitable purposes.

Liability of members

7 The members of the organisation have no liability to pay any sums to help to meet the debts (or other liabilities) of the organisation if it is wound up; accordingly, if the organisation is unable to meet its debts, the members will not be held responsible.

8 The members and charity trustees have certain legal duties under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and clause 7 does not exclude (or limit) any personal liabilities they might incur if they are in breach of those duties or in breach of other legal obligations or duties that apply to them personally.

General structure

9 The structure of the organisation consists of: -

9.1 the MEMBERS - who have the right to attend members' meetings (including any annual general meeting) and have important powers under the constitution; the members appoint people to serve on the board and take decisions on changes to the constitution itself;

9.2 the BOARD - who hold regular meetings, and generally control the activities of the organisation; for example, the board is responsible for monitoring and controlling the financial position of the organisation.

10 The people serving on the board are referred to in this constitution as CHARITY TRUSTEES.
MEMBERS

Qualifications for membership

11 Membership is open to any corporate body whose objectives and activities contribute to the practice and development of the traditional arts of Scotland.

12.1 Membership is open to any individual who has been nominated for membership by an unincorporated body whose objectives and activities contribute to the practice and development of the traditional arts of Scotland.

12.2 No more than one individual nominated for membership by each unincorporated body under 12.1 may be a member at any given time.

Application for membership

13.1 Any corporate body which wishes to become a member must submit a written application for membership, signed by an appropriate officer of that body; the application will then be considered by the board at the next board meeting.

13.2 Any unincorporated body wishing to nominate an individual for membership must submit a written application, signed by an appropriate office bearer of the unincorporated body which is nominating him/her for membership; the application will then be considered by the board at the next board meeting.

14 The board may, at its discretion, refuse to admit any person or body to membership.

15 The board must notify each applicant promptly (in writing or by e-mail) of its decision on whether to admit to membership.

Membership subscription

16 No membership subscription will be payable.

Register of members

17 The board must keep a register of members, setting out

17.1 for each current member:
17.1.1 full name and address; and

17.1.2 the date on which they registered as a member of the organisation;

17.1.3 (in the case of an individual nominated under paragraph 12.1) the name of the unincorporated body which nominated him/her for membership.

17.2 for each former member - for at least six years from the date on he/she ceased to be a member:

17.2.1 full name; and

17.2.2 the date on which they ceased to be a member.

18 The board must ensure that the register of members is updated within 28 days of any change:

18.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or

18.2 which is notified to the organisation.

19 If a member or charity trustee of the organisation requests a copy of the register of members, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her/it within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a member (rather than a charity trustee), the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out.

Withdrawal from membership

20 20.1 Any person who wants to withdraw from membership must give a written, signed notice of withdrawal to the organisation; they will cease to be a member as from the time when the notice is received by the organisation.

20.2 An unincorporated body which has nominated an individual for membership may withdraw its nomination at any time by written notice to the organisation to that effect, signed by an appropriate office-bearer of that body; on receipt of the notice by the organisation, the individual in question shall automatically cease to be a member of the organisation.
Transfer of membership

21 Membership of the organisation may not be transferred by a member.

Re-registration of members

22 The board may, at any time, issue notices to the members requiring them to confirm that they wish to remain as members of the organisation, allowing them a period of 28 days (running from the date of issue of the notice) to provide that confirmation to the board.

23 If a member fails to provide confirmation to the board (in writing or by e-mail) that they wish to remain a member of the organisation before the expiry of the 28-day period referred to in clause 22, the board may expel them from membership.

24 A notice under clause 22 will not be valid unless it refers specifically to the consequences (under clause 23) of failing to provide confirmation within the 28-day period.

Expulsion from membership

25 Any person or body may be expelled from membership by way of a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of those present and voting at a members’ meeting, providing the following procedures have been observed:

25.1 at least 21 days’ notice of the intention to propose the resolution must be given to the member concerned, specifying the grounds for the proposed expulsion;

25.2 the member concerned will be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the members’ meeting at which the resolution is proposed.
DECISION-MAKING BY THE MEMBERS

Members' meetings

26 The board must arrange a meeting of members (an annual general meeting or "AGM") in each calendar year.

27 The gap between one AGM and the next must not be longer than 15 months.

28 Notwithstanding clause 26, an AGM does not need to be held during the calendar year in which the organisation is formed; but the first AGM must still be held within 15 months of the date on which the organisation is formed.

29 The business of each AGM must include: -

29.1 a report by the chair on the activities of the organisation;

29.2 consideration of the annual accounts of the organisation;

29.3 the election/re-election of charity trustees, as referred to in clauses 58 to 62.

30 The board may arrange a special members' meeting at any time.

Power to request the board to arrange a special members' meeting

31 The board must arrange a special members' meeting if they are requested to do so by a notice, which may take the form of two or more documents in the same terms, each signed by one or more members (in the case of a member which is a corporate body, signed by an appropriate officer of that body) by members who amount to 10% or more of the total membership of the organisation at the time, providing:

31.1 the notice states the purposes for which the meeting is to be held; and
31.2 those purposes are not inconsistent with the terms of this constitution, the Charities and Trustee (Investment) Scotland Act 2005 or any other statutory provision.

32 If the board receive a notice under clause 31, the date for the meeting which they arrange in accordance with the notice must not be later than 28 days from the date on which they received the notice.

Notice of members' meetings

33 At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of any AGM or any special members' meeting.

34 The notice calling a members' meeting must specify in general terms what business is to be dealt with at the meeting; and

34.1 in the case of a resolution to alter the constitution, must set out the exact terms of the proposed alteration(s); or 34.2 in the case of any other resolution falling within clause 45 (requirement for two-thirds majority) must set out the exact terms of the resolution.

35 The reference to “clear days” in clause 33 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice,

35.1 the day after the notices are posted (or sent by e-mail) should be excluded; and

35.2 the day of the meeting itself should also be excluded.

36 Notice of every members' meeting must be given to all the members of the organisation, and to all the charity trustees; but the accidental omission to give notice to one or more members will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

37 Any notice which requires to be given to a member under this constitution must be:

37.1 sent by post to the member, at the address last notified by them to the organisation; or sent by e-mail to the member, at the e-mail address last notified by them to the organisation.

Procedure at members' meetings

38 No valid decisions can be taken at any members' meeting unless a quorum is present.

39 The quorum for a members' meeting is thirty percent of members, present in person or (in the case of members which are corporate bodies) present via their authorised representatives.

40 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a members' meeting was due to start - or if a quorum ceases to be present during a members' meeting - the meeting cannot proceed; and fresh notices of meeting will require to be sent out, to deal with the business (or remaining business) which was intended to be conducted.

41 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each members' meeting.

42 If the chair of the organisation is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

Voting at members' meetings

43.1 Every member has one vote, which must be given personally or (in the case of a member which is a corporate body) given via its authorised representative present at the meeting.

43.2 A member which is a corporate body shall be entitled to authorise an individual to attend and vote at members' meetings; they will then be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the body which they represent, as that body could have exercised if it had been an individual member of the organisation.
All decisions at members' meetings will be made by majority vote - except for the types of resolution listed in clause 45.

The following resolutions will be valid only if passed by not less than two thirds of those voting on the resolution at a members' meeting (or if passed by way of a written resolution under clause 49):

45.1 a resolution amending the constitution;

45.2 a resolution expelling a person or body from membership under article 25;

45.3 a resolution directing the board to take any particular step (or directing the board not to take any particular step);

45.4 a resolution approving the amalgamation of the organisation with another SCIO (or approving the constitution of the new SCIO to be constituted as the successor pursuant to that amalgamation);

45.5 a resolution to the effect that all the organisation's property, rights and liabilities should be transferred to another SCIO (or agreeing to the transfer from another SCIO of all its property, rights and liabilities).

45.6 a resolution for the winding up or dissolution of the organisation.

If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.

A resolution put to the vote at a members' meeting will be decided on a show of hands - unless the chairperson (or at least two other members present at the meeting and entitled to vote) ask for a secret ballot.

The chairperson will decide how any secret ballot is to be conducted, and he/she will declare the result of the ballot at the meeting.
Written resolutions by members

49 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by all the members will be as valid as if it had been passed at a members’ meeting; the date of the resolution will be taken to be the date on which the last member agreed to it.

Minutes

50 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all members’ meetings.

51 Minutes of members’ meetings must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.

52 The board shall make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 50 to any member of the public requesting them; but on the basis that the board may exclude confidential material to the extent permitted under clause 97.

BOARD

Number of charity trustees

53 The maximum number of charity trustees is 12; out of that no more than 2 shall be charity trustees who were co-opted under the provisions of clause 61.1 and 61.2.

54 The minimum number of charity trustees is 5.

Eligibility

55 A person will not be eligible for election or appointment to the board under clauses 58 to 61 unless they are a member of the organisation or have been nominated for election/appointment to the board by a member which is a corporate body; a person appointed to the board under clause 59 need not, however, be a member of the organisation.

56 A person will not be eligible for election or appointment to the board if he/she is:-
56.1 disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or 56.2 an employee of the organisation.

Initial charity trustees

57 The individuals who signed the charity trustee declaration forms which accompanied the application for incorporation of the organisation shall be deemed to have been appointed by the members as charity trustees with effect from the date of incorporation of the organisation.

Election, retiral, re-election

58 At each AGM, the members may elect any member (unless they are debarred from membership under clause 55) to be a charity trustee.

59 The board may at any time appoint any member (unless they are debarred from membership under clause 55) to be a charity trustee.

60 In addition to their powers under clause 59 the board may at any time appoint any non-member of the organisation to be a charity trustee (subject to clause 53) either on the basis that they have been nominated by a body with which then organisation has close contact in the course of its activities, or on the basis that he/she has specialist experience and/or skills which could be of assistance to the board.

61.1 At the first AGM one quarter (or to the nearest round number) of the charity trustees shall retire from office; the question of which of them is to retire determined by some random method.

61.2 At each AGM (other than the first) any charity trustees appointed under clause 59 during the period since the preceding AGM shall retire from office. Out of the remaining charity trustees (disregarding for this purpose those appointed under clause 60) one quarter (to the nearest round number) shall retire from office. The charity trustees to retire will be those who have been longest in office since they were last elected or re-elected. As between persons elected/re-elected on the same date, the question of which of them is to retire shall be determined by some random method.

61.3 A charity trustee who retires from office under clause 60.2 or 61.2 will be eligible for re-election.

61.4 At each AGM, all the charity trustees appointed under clause 60 shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-appointment under that clause.

62 A charity trustee retiring at an AGM will be deemed to have been re-elected unless:

62.1 they advise the board prior to the conclusion of the AGM that they do not wish to be re-appointed as a charity trustee; or

62.2 an election process was held at the AGM and they were not among those elected/re-elected through that process; or

62.3 a resolution for the re-election of that charity trustee was put to the AGM and was not carried.

Termination of office

63 A charity trustee will automatically cease to hold office if:

63.1 they become disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005;

63.2 they become incapable for medical reasons of carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee - but only if that has continued (or is expected to continue) for a period of more than six months;

63.3 (in the case of a charity trustee elected/appointed under clauses 58 to 61) they cease to be a member of the organisation, or (if nominated by a corporate body) the corporate body ceases to be a member of the organisation;

63.4 they become an employee of the organisation;
63.5 they give the organisation a notice of resignation, signed;

63.6 they are absent (without good reason, in the opinion of the board) from more than three consecutive meetings - but only if the board resolves to remove them from office;

63.7 they are removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that they are considered to have committed a material breach of the code of conduct for charity trustees (as referred to in clause 80);

63.8 they are removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have been in serious or persistent breach of his/her duties under section 66(1) or (2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or

63.9 they are removed from office by a resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting.

64 A resolution under paragraph 63.7, 63.8 or 63.9 shall be valid only if:-

64.1 the charity trustee who is the subject of the resolution is given reasonable prior written notice of the grounds upon which the resolution for his/her removal is to be proposed;

64.2 the charity trustee concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and

64.3 (in the case of a resolution under paragraph 63.7 or 63.8) at least two thirds (to the nearest round number) of the charity trustees then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of charity trustees

65 The board must keep a register of charity trustees, setting out
65.1 for each current charity trustee:

65.1.1 full name and address;

65.1.2 date on which they were appointed as a charity trustee;

65.1.3 the name of the corporate member which nominated each charity trustee (if applicable); and

65.1.4 any office held by him/her in the organisation;

65.2 for each former charity trustee - for at least 6 years from the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee:

65.2.1 the name of the charity trustee;

65.2.2 any office held by them in the organisation; and

65.2.3 the date on which they ceased to be a charity trustee.

66 The board must ensure that the register of charity trustees is updated within 28 days of any change:

66.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or

66.2 which is notified to the organisation.

67 If any person requests a copy of the register of charity trustees, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a person who is not a charity trustee of the organisation, the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out - if the SCIO is satisfied that including that information is likely to jeopardise the safety or security of any person or premises.

Office-bearers

68 The charity trustees must elect (from among themselves) a chair, a treasurer and a secretary.
In addition to the office-bearers required under clause 68, the charity trustees may elect (from among themselves) further office-bearers if they consider that appropriate.

All the office-bearers will cease to hold office at the end of each AGM but may then be re-elected under clause 68 or 69.

A person elected to any office will automatically cease to hold that office: -

71.1 if they ceases to be a charity trustee; or

71.2 if they give the organisation a notice of resignation from that office, signed.

Powers of board

Except where this constitution states otherwise, the organisation (and its assets and operations) will be managed by the board; and the board may exercise all the powers of the organisation.

A meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.

The members may, by way of a resolution passed in compliance with clause 45 (requirement for two-thirds majority), direct the board to take any step or direct the board not to take any step; and the board shall give effect to any such direction accordingly.

Charity trustees - general duties

Each of the charity trustees has a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the organisation; and, in particular, must: -

75.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the organisation acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;

75.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the organisation and any other party:

75.3.1 put the interests of the organisation before that of the other party;

75.3.2 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the organisation and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other charity trustees regarding the matter in question;

75.4 ensure that the organisation complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

76 In addition to the duties outlined in clause 75, all the charity trustees must take such steps as are reasonably practicable for ensuring:

76.1 that any breach of any of those duties by a charity trustee is corrected by the charity trustee concerned and not repeated; and

76.2 that any trustee who has been in serious and persistent breach of those duties is removed as a trustee.

77 Provided they has declared their interest - and has not voted on the question of whether or not the organisation should enter into the arrangement - a charity trustee will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the organisation in which they have a personal interest; and (subject to clause 78 and provisions relating to remuneration for services contained in the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005), they may retain any personal benefit which arises from that arrangement.

78 No charity trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the organisation; and no charity trustee may be given any remuneration by the organisation for carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee.
79 The charity trustees may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with carrying out their duties; this may include expenses relating to their attendance at meetings.

Code of conduct for charity trustees

80 Each of the charity trustees shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board from time to time.

81 The code of conduct referred to in clause 80 shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of charity trustees contained in this constitution and the duties imposed on charity trustees under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and all relevant provisions of this constitution shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.

DECISION-MAKING BY THE CHARITY TRUSTEES

Notice of board meetings

82 Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the board or ask the secretary to call a meeting of the board.

83 At least 7 days' notice must be given of each board meeting, unless (in the opinion of the person calling the meeting) there is a degree of urgency which makes that inappropriate.

Procedure at board meetings

84 No valid decisions can be taken at a board meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for board meetings is 3 of the charity trustees, present in person.

85 If at any time the number of charity trustees in office falls below the number stated as the quorum in clause 84, the remaining charity trustee(s) will have power to fill the vacancies or call a members' meeting - but will not be able to take any other valid decisions.

86 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each board meeting.
If the chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

Every charity trustee has one vote, which must be given personally.

All decisions at board meetings will be made by majority vote.

If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.

The board may, at its discretion, allow any person to attend and speak at a board meeting notwithstanding that they are not a charity trustee - but on the basis that they must not participate in decision-making.

A charity trustee must not vote at a board meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution which relates to a matter in which he/she has a personal interest or duty which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the organisation; he/she must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.

For the purposes of clause 92:

93.1 an interest held by an individual who is “connected” with the charity trustee under section 68(2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister etc.) shall be deemed to be held by that charity trustee;

93.2 a charity trustee will be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which they are an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has an interest in that matter.
Minutes

94 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all board meetings and meetings of sub-committees.

95 The minutes to be kept under clause 94 must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.

96 The board shall make available copies of the board minutes to any member of the public requesting them.

97 The board may exclude from any copy minutes made available to a member of the public any material which the board considers ought to be kept confidential - on the grounds that allowing access to such material could cause significant prejudice to the interests of the organisation or on the basis that the material contains reference to other matters which it would be inappropriate to divulge.

ADMINISTRATION

Delegation to sub-committees

98 The board may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees; a sub-committee must include at least one charity trustee, but other members of a sub-committee need not be charity trustees.

99 The board may also delegate to the chair of the organisation (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.

100 When delegating powers under clause 98 or 999, the board must set out appropriate conditions (which must include an obligation to report regularly to the board).

101 Any delegation of powers under clause 988 or 999 may be revoked or altered by the board at any time.

102 The rules of procedure for each sub-committee, and the provisions relating to membership of each sub-committee, shall be set by the board.
Operation of accounts

103 Subject to clause 1044, the signatures of two out of four signatories appointed by the board will be required in relation to all operations (other than the lodging of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the organisation; in the case of any expenditures not previously budgeted and authorised by the board at least two out of the four signatures must be the signature of a charity trustee.

104 Where the organisation uses electronic facilities for the operation of any bank or building society account, the authorisations required for operations on that account must be consistent with the approach reflected in clause 103.

Accounting records and annual accounts

105 The board must ensure that proper accounting records are kept, in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.

106 The board must prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions (or if the board consider that an audit would be appropriate for some other reason), the board should ensure that an audit of the accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.

MISCELLANEOUS

Winding-up

107 If the organisation is to be wound up or dissolved, the winding-up or dissolution process will be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

108 Any surplus assets available to the organisation immediately preceding its winding up or dissolution must be used for purposes which are the same as— or which closely resemble—the purposes of the organisation as set out in this constitution.
Alterations to the constitution

109 This constitution may (subject to clause 11010) be altered by resolution of the members passed at a members’ meeting (subject to achieving the two thirds majority referred to in clause 45) or by way of a written resolution of the members.

110 The Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 prohibits taking certain steps (e.g. change of name, an alteration to the purposes, amalgamation, winding-up) without the consent of the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR).

Interpretation

111 References in this constitution to the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 should be taken to include:

111.1 any statutory provision which adds to, modifies or replaces that Act; and 111.2 any statutory instrument issued in pursuance of that Act or in pursuance of any statutory provision falling under paragraph 111.1 above.

112 In this constitution:

112.1 “charity” means a body which is either a “Scottish charity” within the meaning of section 13 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 or a “charity” within the meaning of section 1 of the Charities Act 2006, providing (in either case) that its objects are limited to charitable purposes;

112.2 “charitable purpose” means a charitable purpose under section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 which is also regarded as a charitable purpose in relation to the application of the Taxes Acts.
